THE CAPITOL WHIRL

A Digest of Things Political Occurring At Harrisburg

By International News Service

HARRISBURG, Aug. 5.—Reports from both Republican and Democratic chieftains were planning to inaugurate campaigns shortly to lure the votes of Pennsylvania's 600 former service men and women have been circulating in the Capitol Hill. The drives were expected to be intensified early in October. Both statewide tickets include two men who served in the armed forces during World War II.

Gov. Edward Martin, a retired major general, commanded Pennsylvania's 28th Infantry Division in nearly part of the war while Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, of Lancaster, led the division's 110th Infantry's regiment during the battle of the bulge.

In the Democratic ticket, John S. E. of Gettysburg, a former colonel in the U. S. Army Air Forces, the gubernatorial nominee is former Marine Corps hero, Sgt. Al Schmid, of Philadelphia, is the Democratic nominee for Secretary of Internal Affairs. Schmid was named on the Democratic ticket because "G.I.'s won't vote for brass."

The defeat of two well-known U. S. senators—a Republican and a Democrat—at primary elections in Minnesota and Montana have boosted the hopes of G.O.P. leaders that Edward Martin may be able to seat U. S. Sen. Joseph P. Guffey November. Some chieftains have interpreted the unseating of S. Sens. Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mt.) and Henrik Shipstead (R-Mn.) as a trend to "toss out the S."

Campaigns to persuade more men to participate in politics are expected to be carried out by the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women and its Democratic counterpart. Some chieftains have contended that the votes of the large bloc of newswives could swing an election. It was also expected that the women would be made to have more men seek public offices. At present time, only four women are included among the 258 Pennsylvania lawmakers. No women present Pennsylvania in Congress.

Although the General Assembly will not convene for five months, many organizations and civic groups have begun mapping their legislative program for presentation to lawmakers for their consideration. Most organizations, however, were not expected to complete their programs before the end of the year.

The State Game Commission has reported that 13 lecturers were continued on Page Two

Morrisville and Philadelphia V. F. W.'s Plan An Outing

MORRISVILLE, Aug. 5.—Morrisville Memorial Post, No. 2176, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Liberty Post, V. F. W., Philadelphia, plan a joint outing for Sunday, August 18th, at Smith's Grove, on Perry Road.

Chairman of the committee on general arrangements is Thomas J. McNeil, assisted by Richard M. Young, Walter K. Koons and John J. Scullis.

Wives and children of members will also be in attendance at the picnic.

Republican Women of U. S. To Assemble in Philadelphia

HARRISBURG, Aug. 5.—(INS)—The Third Biennial Convention of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs was scheduled today to be held at Philadelphia September 26-27 to permit delegates to outline Congressional campaign strategy.

Mrs. Meade Detweiler, of Harrisburg, state hostess and chairman of the nominating committee, said Mrs. W. Glenn Suthers, of Chicago, president since 1942, would preside during the two-day session.

Several hundred delegates from 42 states and the District of Columbia were expected to attend the session, Mrs. Detweiler said.

The nominating committee, she reported, would recommend a slate of officers to guide the organization through the 1948 presidential campaign.

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

With members of Doylestown Lodge, No. 245, F. and A. M., and Doylestown Royal Arch Chapter, No. 270, as the hosts, 59 boys of Tri-Square Camp were entertained at a ball game and camp fire at Dublin Ball Park on Wednesday evening.

The boys, who are attending Tri-Square Camp, a 35-acre camping area, near Chalfont, were from Glenside, Jenkintown, Wycombe, Norristown, Philadelphia, Frankford, Lansdale, Harboro, Willow Grove, Doylestown and other Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia suburban places.

At the Dublin Ball Park, a team was selected representing Tri-Square Camp and another representing Dublin.

Following the ball game, the boys staged a camp drill ceremony and a doggie roast and watermelon party were held.

Chief of Police Frank Hallman, of Sellersville, said a police search has failed to reveal the whereabouts of Edwin R. Shoup, 21-year-old Navy veteran, who disappeared from the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Moyer, Sellersville, on July 20.

A police message giving a description of Shoup and the automobile he was driving went out to all police in eastern states, but the former Navy man has not been picked up.

Shoup and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shoup, Peckville, near Scranton, arrived at the Moyer home on the afternoon of July 20. That evening Shoup asked permission to drive to Prospectville to visit a Navy acquaintance. His father gave him the car.

When Shoup did not return to Sellersville, a check at Prospectville, revealed he never arrived there.

Eugene C. Bricklemeyer, 31, recently discharged from the U. S. Navy with the rank of lieutenant, after nearly four years of service in connection with the Navy's physical training program, has been given the position of head football coach at Doylestown high school.

Coach Bricklemeyer, a graduate of Doylestown high school, class of 1934, and of the University of North Carolina four years later, turned down an offer to coach at Winston-Salem (N. C.) High, to accept the Doylestown offer.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Secretary of State Byrnes is expected to support a British proposal on voting when the rules committee of the Paris peace conference reconvenes today after a Sunday recess to open the second week of the meeting. Under the British plan, the delegates would make recommendations by a two-thirds vote and by a simple majority. Mr. Byrnes, it was understood, would agree to Big Four consideration of all recommendations, but would feel impelled to be committed only to those proposals winning the larger vote.

Mr. Byrnes, "extremely pleased" with the progress of the conference, said the meeting had made more headway than he had anticipated and that he expected new ideas to come from it. Similar optimism was expressed by Herbert V. Ewart of Australia.

Italy was reported determined to reject any peace treaty taking her colonies away from her. Compensation for American investors in Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania for loss of property during the war, estimated to total about $75,000,000, will be sought by the United States delegation.

FINE HARVEST FACES BUCKS CO. FARMERS

In Spite of Heavy Storms, Recently, Crops Will Be Good, It is Said

A GOOD GRAIN YEAR

An excellent harvest season faces Bucks County farmers, according to County Farm Agent William F. Greenawald.

In spite of severe storms of two weeks ago, a very small percentage of grain, including wheat, barley, rye and oats, was lost.

At the time of the storms, said Mr. Greenawald, practically all of the wheat, barley and rye was harvested, and about 50 percent of the oats was in the barns. Oats that had not been harvested were either on shock or standing in the fields. That which was uncut was so badly lodged it was almost impossible to cut it. This means, of course, some of it was lost.

Generally speaking, said Mr. Greenawald, this was a good grain year. Although the yield this year was not exceptionally heavy, the yield of wheat per acre in the county this year was above average. Bucks county's average is about 28 bushels to the acre, but this year the average was from 30 to 40 bushels per acre.

During the wet weather late in May and early in June some of the grain became diseased infested with the result that the yield was somewhat lower. Some of the wheat developed scab, which results in undeveloped kernels.

According to Mr. Greenawald, the winter barley yield was exceptionally heavy. The yield throughout

MONEY AND UNIONS

A day of reckoning may soon be in the making for the insurgent labor movement which has so upset the peace and economy of the United States during the past year.

There have been more labor union fireworks during that time than ever before. Certain labor bosses have defied the President, the Courts, the Congress, the Constitution and the American people.

Following a trend which many observers believe was dictated by Communists who had seized positions of influence in key unions, this nation has skirted close to open anarchy, social chaos, and a take-over by the collectivists under some sort of State Socialism.

The unruly labor chiefs went into the fight with all the aces in the deck. They had vast war chests. They had elaborate machinery for preparing and distributing their own brand of propaganda. They had dictatorial control over their own membership. They had no inhibitions against breaking their own agreements.

And they had the key to the side door of the White House—they enjoyed special standing with the President because they were largely responsible for his choice and election.

Moreover, they won their battles almost without exception. They found President Truman a willing convert to the idea that wages could rise indefinitely and prices remain frozen. They clubbed and dazed the public with unnecessary strikes. They drove through top-heavy agreements by having the weak-kneed Federal government take over long enough to put them into effect. Only once did President Truman lose his temper, and then it was on a matter of personalities rather than principles.

Nevertheless, with all these victories, what have these labor bosses got to show, now that (for the moment) the shooting is over? Precious little!

They have focussed public attention on the need for some means of curbing unlimited labor-boss power. The fact that they forced President Truman to veto the Case Bill does not mean that legislation still will not be put into effect stopping strikes against the government and the public; laws requiring labor bosses to account for their spending of union funds; laws giving the membership of

BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS TO GET STATE AID

Towns Eligible to Get State Motor Funds Under Legislation Okayed by Martin

BRISTOL GETS $1,407.66

HARRISBURG, Aug. 5.—Municipal sub-divisions in Bucks County are eligible to receive $33,663.18 as their September 1 allocation from the Motor Fund under terms of legislation approved by Governor Edward Martin. Requisitions for the quarterly payment are now being prepared by the Department of Highways under whose jurisdiction the money is expended by the local governmental units.

The money is being paid to cities, boroughs and first and second class townships as their share of the tax levied on motor vehicle gasoline consumption. Local governmental units may expend this money for street, bridge and road maintenance or construction.

In Bucks County the following amounts have been allocated by the Department of Highways to the various classes of municipalities: Boroughs, $19,988.67; second class townships, $23,574.51.

Payments to the various municipal sub-divisions are made only after the local authorities have qualified by filing reports showing how expenditures were made for the previous six month period.

Amounts available to the various boroughs in Bucks County are: Bristol, $1,407.66; Chalfont, $256.92; Doylestown, $1,233.91; Dublin, $52.88; Ivyland, $293.13; Langhorne, $256.97; Langhorne Manor, $497.95; Morrisville, $1,467.26; New Britain, $248.78; New Hope, $284.55; Newtown, $454.11; Perkasie, $1,366.94; Quakertown, $878.01; Riegelsville, $399.50; Sellersville, $383.60; Silver-

One War Brings On Another

(By "The Stroller")
A sixth ward hubby is a great help to his wife in these days of scarcities when with a carton full of a certain scarce item arriving at a market, it is necessary to be one of the first on the scene.

The other day wifey heard that one of the nearby markets had mayonnaise, that product which home-makers have been glad to run a mile for during the past several months. She sent hubby, post-haste, for a jar, and it isn't recorded for posterity what she said when he returned with a jar of may-malade.

22 SEEKING TO WED ARE ONLY IN 'TEENS

29 of Those Applying For Licenses Had Been Divorced

FROM MANY STATES

From the Orphans' Court at Doylestown comes information that of the 109 couples who applied for licenses to wed during July, 17 of the girls and five of the boys were of teen-age.

Of the 109 brides-to-be, 64 were in their twenties, and 70 of the prospective husbands were in their twenties. In comparison with last month there were no applicants in their seventies, and no sixteen-year-olds applied.

Seventeen teen-age girls and five teen-age boys applied. The youngest applicant was a 17-year-old bridegroom-to-be from Phila., while the oldest was a Willow Grove woman, aged 63.

In the 30 to 40 age group, there were 17 males and 18 females. There were seven men each in their forties and fifties and four women each in the 40 to 50 age group. Only two men and two women in their sixties were issued licenses to wed.

The greatest difference in ages was 29 years—a man, aged 60, and his 40 year-old bride-to-be. There were two couples, with both applicants only 18 years old, who applied. One couple was from Crofton and Bristol twp., while the other was a Parkland Langhorne couple. The oldest couple was a Jenkintown man, 60, and a Willow Grove woman, 63.

Comparatively there were more divorcees this month than last. Sixteen men and 13 women were divorced. Of the 215 applicants, 88 were non-residents of Bucks county.

Out-of-state prospective husbands and wives came from Florida, California, New York, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Massachusetts and Illinois.

The couple that traveled the greatest distance to secure a license to wed came from Chicago, Illinois.

Britain Offers Compromise Voting Proposal

Paris. Great Britain offered a compromise voting proposal today in an attempt to break the impasse between the pro-Soviet and small western nations at the peace conference.

U. S. Secretary of State James Byrnes announced immediately that he would embrace the compromise. In essence, the British proposal contains two sections.

1. The Big Four would agree to write into the peace treaties any recommendation that receives a two-thirds vote by the plenary conference.

2. The Big Four would consider, but not oblige itself to accept, any recommendation that receives a majority approval by the conference.

Byrnes pointed out that the two-thirds practice is followed in many international conferences, including the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Floating Dry-Dock at Bikini Added to Toll

Bikini—Another craft was added to the number counted as destroyed by the underwater atomic explosion today when an 1800-ton concrete floating drydock capsized in Bikini Lagoon.

The reinforced concrete hull of the craft which was in the inner target cluster was cracked ten days ago in the Baker Test.

With the capsizing of the drydock, the toll of ships sunk or destroyed rose to eight, comprising more than 120,000 tons.

The drydock was damaged in the July 1 overhead test but was repaired for the underwater explosion.

Clipper Pilot Tells of Earthquake

Miami, Fla.,—First eyewitness accounts of the earthquake which struck the Caribbean area were brought to Miami today on a Pan-American clipper which left San Juan, Puerto Rico, 15 minutes after the first shock. Describing the quake, Capt. Gordon J. Brakesman, pilot of the Clipper said:

"The ground was rocking under us when we took off.

"The terminal building was shaking."

SUIT GROWS OUT OF DISPUTE OVER A ROOFING JOB

Firm Claims Richboro Man Failed To Pay For The Work

THREE DIVORCE SUITS

Charles E. Smith, Bristol, Named As Respondent By His Wife

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 5.—A dispute growing out of the sum of $200 for a roofing job and three divorce cases make up four suits now before the Bucks county courts.

The one case, growing out of a dispute concerning alleged non-payment of $200 for a roofing job by a Richboro man, has been filed.

Following a decision by Justice of the Peace William Wrigley, of Edison, at a hearing held June 22, when judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff, an appeal has been filed in an action in assumpsit by S. H. Marvel, Richboro, in the Court of Common Pleas, here.

According to the statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Isaac S. Gross, the plaintiff, Suburban Insulation & Appliance Company, Glenside, on December 5, 1945, did some tin roofing work for the defendant for the cost of $200.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant has not paid that sum and is suing for the amount of $200 plus the costs of prosecution.

Chester Blalozeski, who entered the Army in May, 1941, and was discharged August 9, 1945, has named his wife, Amelia J. Blalozeski, the respondent in a libel in divorce, charging her with misconduct while he was in the service.

The libellant, who lives at Allentown, and the respondent, who resides at Allentown, were married May 26, 1942, in Allentown, while he was a soldier. They separated in 1945.

Charles E. Smith, Third avenue, Bristol, has been named the respondent in a divorce libel filed by his wife, Gertrude R. Smith, Newport Terrace. They were married February 2, 1940, by the Rev. Louis E. Pifer, 3d, in Hulmeville. They separated June 11, 1944.

Begin Work of Installing Parking Meters in Bristol

Work of installing parking meters in Bristol began this morning as a crew of men started work placing the meters along Mill street.

There will be approximately 150 meters installed and the business district will be fairly well covered.

Council plans to adopt a new parking ordinance so that parking will be regulated in accordance with the meters and on other streets which no doubt will be more generally used for parking after the meters are installed.

ONE MAN'S OPINION . .

By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

Bargaining elections for atom bomb workers will be held this month. . . If a shorter week is proposed we also would like to see some kindly mention of a longer life for all of us.

The elections were delayed while the war was on. . . Through the courtesy of AFL and CIO, grievances against the Japs were permitted to take precedence over local grievances.

Bargaining begins one year after the atom bomb was dropped on Hiroshima. . . It is reported that the flare was so brilliant a great light dawned on Bill Green and Phil Murray.

They didn't know much about nuclear fission. . . But 20 thousand potential new members they could understand.

But they held off. . . like small boys waiting for the signal to advance on the ice cream.

Anyway it's a good thing to get the unionization problem settled. . . a jurisdictional strike in the atom bomb industry could be more pulverizing than paralyzing.

I wouldn't want to be on the picket line if there was anybody inside. . . What defense is a paper sign against chain reaction?

WHY THE DELAY?

After having tried in vain to buy an automobile, some farm equipment and various minor home appliances, a reader asks the following question: Why is it that a country which was able in 1941-42 to convert from peacetime production to wartime production in a few short months has found it impossible to reconvert to peacetime in the whole year since the war ended?

There is, of course, no single explanation that is adequate. Part of the responsibility lies with the administration in Washington which has been blundering and incompetent. More than minor blame attaches to the labor leaders at whose behest men have either gone on strike or reduced the amount of work they will do in a given period of time. A third factor is a general restlessness which makes people want to go on vacation rather than stay on the job.

Some of the blundering in Washington has been both vicious and deliberate. There are men and women with high standing in the administration—most of them pro-communists of the advanced New Deal type—who do not want America to return to prosperity under the system of free enterprise and who have influence and power enough to make continuous trouble.

The more confusion there is and the greater the delay in producing needed commodities the better it fits in with their purpose to socialize industry and inflict regimentation upon the nation.

These people naturally were elated by the wave of strikes which inundated the country for many months. Some of them, in fact, started the whole performance, especially that group of so-called economists and statisticians which inspired Henry Wallace to give out the misleading and unfounded statement that wages could be raised 25 per cent without increasing the cost of manufactured goods.

This was more than sheer nonsense. It created a situation which interfered with the whole reconversion process. That is one reason why people cannot buy automobiles today. It is conservatively estimated that there would be one million additional new cars on the road today if it had not been for strikes.

Nation's debt limit has been reduced to 275 billions, or 375 times as large as it was when Wilson took office.

Perhaps buyers will not go on strike, as some economists fear, but they are getting out of practice in alarming manner.

Critic who says man has been enslaved by the machine no doubt has just discovered the old family bus is demanding more and more attention.

One scientist complains that nothing was accomplished during the first year of the atomic age. By which he probably means that Russia was not taken in on the secret.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Mar. 16, 1895. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

The Philadelphia Methodist Episcopal Conference which was held at Norristown this year, adjourned on last Tuesday. The following were among the appointments made: Rev. E. E. Barriss, Bristol; S. McCannell, Emille and Fallsington; J. W. Hudson, Lahaska; Langhorne, to be supplied; George K. Graft, Morrisville; A. I. Slick, Neshaunty and Bensalem; O. R. Cook, New Hope; O. C. Burt, Newtown; Allen Judd, Tullytown circuit.

As soon as the weather permits, the building of a new ferry house near the foot of Market street, will be commenced. The main building will be 52x26 feet and 22 feet high. The waiting room will be 12x18 feet.

The members of St. James' Episcopal Church will re-occupy the church building on Easter Sunday. The new organ has been placed and everything will be in readiness on that occasion.

The last regular meeting of the present burgess and council was held in the council chamber on Monday evening.

The clerk reported the correspondence between the borough and the Bristol Water Co., ending in the refusal of the latter to endorse on the old contract their offer to furnish water to the borough free of charge. On motion the communication from the clerk of the water company the old contracts were ordered to be filed.

A communication from Charles E. Scott, the Bristol member of the Philadelphia Board of Port Wardens, calling attention to the fact that the channel between Burlington and Bristol is now but 100 feet wide and seven feet deep, and asking that a resolution be passed urging Mayor Raymond of the U. S. Engineer Corps to have the channel improved, was read, and a resolution adopted as requested.

The new ferry boat of the Burlington & Bristol Steamboat Ferry Company is expected to be launched some day next week. This company is said to hold the oldest charter in the United States, which was granted to William Penn by England on June 10, 1694.

(Following items from Gazette of March 23, 1895.)

The petitions for the amendment of the borough charter by striking out the restrictive clause limiting the borough debt to $10,000 have been forwarded to the Hon. George Ross, Senator from Bucks County, for presentation to the State Legislature. The petitions contain the names of 924 voters and taxpayers.

A number of workmen have been engaged for some time in cleaning up the rolling mill, weighing the iron and getting things in readiness to resume operations. This work is now about finished and it will not be long before the fires will be lighted and the manufacture of hoop, band and bar iron resumed.

In one of the scrap heaps at the rolling mill a chain composed of immense links is to be seen. It is said that this chain once belonged to the rebel ram Merrimack.

Water was let into the canal last Saturday. Pike, perch, chub and catfish and several other species are said to be plenty in the canal.

On last Saturday night . . . the 2½ story frame dwelling house on Garden street, occupied by Thomas Brooks, was discovered to be on fire.

The inmates of the house were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks, Mrs. Drysdale, the aged mother of Mrs. Brooks, Miss Maggie Brooks, and Thomas and Robert Miller, aged about 10 and eight years, respectively.

The front door was broken down by the neighbors to save the furniture and household goods. The noise aroused Thomas Brooks who climbed from the second story to the roof of the porch and jumped to the ground. His daughter Maggie shortly afterward escaped by climbing out the dormer window in the attic and creeping along the gutter spout to the adjoining house, was rescued from her perilous position by means of a ladder. The other members of the household perished in the flames.

MONEY AND UNIONS

unions more power to control what their "leaders" do both in union matters and in politics.

As for the "gains" of higher wages, the members are up against two unhappy facts: one, that it will take months of the higher pay to cover the loss of wages during the strikes; second, that higher prices are rapidly making the new wages worth less than the old.

But in another field entirely the union bosses may be said to have tripped over their own feet.

In their senseless "show of strength" they largely exhausted their "war chests." With many of their treasuries almost empty, they have the further complication of soaring costs in their own affairs.

Figures compiled by the United States News, a Washington weekly, throw interesting light on this point. The United Auto Workers Union is reported to have spent all of its reserve of $1,500,000 and been forced to borrow $500,000. The CIO Textile Workers Union is said to have spent $5,000,000 in five years and now to be scraping the bottom of the barrel. While some still are prosperous, others are seriously embarrassed.

An interesting side-show to this feature is that, as reserves dwindle some of the unions are colliding with labor trouble inside their staffs.

CIO office employees have a union of their own, which is demanding higher pay. The UAW organizers are dissatisfied with a stop-gap increase in their expense allowances, and they have formed a union to "bargain" with the parent union.

Somehow this reminds one of the old couplet: "Big fleas have little fleas upon their backs to bite 'em;

The little fleas have lesser still, and so on ad infinitum."

But more is involved than the annoyance of the fact that money still talks, even in labor unions, and that pressure government always comes high to those who use it.

Underneath all these questions is the restless attitude of the men and women who make up the membership of the unions.

In the CIO, thousands of members belong only because the Federal government made them join to get war jobs.

Many of these individuals have had their tongues in their cheeks about the whole proposition.

Moreover, it runs against the grain of American citizens to have "economic democracy" or anything else promoted by tyranny. There has been a seething of discontent over the high-handed methods of the labor bosses. Members resent having no greater say about union policies.

Repeatedly labor bosses have made political "deals" with Washington figures, and then passed the word down through the ranks that the membership had to back these up with political contributions and votes—whether they believed in them or not.

As is well known, the recent "price-control" parades of the PAC were produced by the threat that the non-paraders might lose their standing in the CIO unions, and hence lose their jobs. In a Detroit union mass meeting, 94 per cent of the members voted against the parade—but it was held, just the same.

This sort of "pushing around" will be tolerated by the members only reluctantly, and then only when it gets satisfactory results.

It now is becoming apparent that the price-control law for which the CIO-PAC leadership lobbied is resulting in much higher prices than when the OPA was out of business; and that the reports of profiteering during the interim were largely propaganda.

At some stage in the game, several million union members are going to start asking just what it is they are getting for their union dues—and whether they want it at any price!

300 ANGLERS LACK FISH IN CONTEST AT SILVER LAKE

Contestants Leave The Lake
Grumbling and Discouraged Over Result

NO BASS OR PICKEREL

2 Entries in Junior and 2 in Adult Division Make Catches

An estimated 300 anglers came hopefully to Silver Lake yesterday to participate in the annual open fishing contest sponsored by the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association, and the same number left the Lake grumbling and disc-ouraged.

Not a single bass or pickerel was caught in the twelve hours of the contest from seven in the morning until seven in the evening.

Just two entries were recorded in the Junior Division and just two in the Adult Division.

Little Joseph Cochran, 819 Garden street, was declared the winner of the kids section with his entry of a quarter-pound catfish. In section was James Cliver, 205
Otter street, with a 2-ounce sunfish.

... half-pound catfish, entered by Joe Elbertson, was the largest fish caught at the Lake all day. The only other entry in the adult section was a 3 1/4-ounce yellow perch, caught by Mrs. Antoinette Fauata, Newport-ville.

Every conceivable bait was employed by the contestants, all kinds of tackle was on hand, and the Lake was thoroughly fished from its headwaters to the dam breast. The winning entries in both divisions were landed on worms. A number of boats worked the water offshore over the 55 acres of water in the Lake with no better results than the shore fishermen.

YOUTH LEAGUE TEAMS IN PLAYOFF SERIES

The Bristol Youth League playoff series got under way yesterday with victories going to the Third Ward and Croydon teams.

On the Maple Beach field, the Third Ward Eagles, behind the two-bit pitching of "Lanny" Jones, conquered the Bristol Township nine, 3-1. "Inky" Schneider did the pitching for the Township team.

The Croydon team won out over West Bristol, 8-6, at Croydon. The losers outbait the winners, 9-7, but four runs in the 7th clinched the tilt for the Croydonites. Sperling was the winning moundman while the defeat went to Bob Ghanitt.

PEACHES RIPENED ON TREE ARE BEST TO PUT IN FREEZER

By Edith M. Hopkins
(Home Economics Representative)
The freshness and goodness of peaches can be enjoyed the year round if the fruit is frozen. Because its flavor is fully developed, tree-ripened fruit is best for freezing. Elberta, Golden Jubilee, Hale-haven, J. H. Hale, and South Haven are among the best varieties for freezing.

Tree-ripened fruit and speed are important for a high quality frozen product. You should scald only enough peaches at one time to fill a few containers. Put the peaches in a square of cheesecloth or a wire basket and scald them 30 seconds in boiling water, then dip in cold water to loosen the skins.

Pour a 50 per cent sirup, made of equal parts of sugar and water, to a depth of one inch, into a heavily waxed container. Be sure the sirup is ice cold. Quarter or slice the peaches into the container. Slicing the fruit directly into the sirup and container keeps the peaches from the air which causes them to darken. Fill the packages to a half inch from the top, seal, and put into the freezer as quickly as possible.

A citric acid dip for the peaches or the addition of ascorbic acid to the sirup also helps to prevent the fruit from becoming brown. For the dip, use one-fourth teaspoon of cit-ric acid to one quart of water and dip the peaches in this solution for one minute.

In using ascorbic acid, add one-fourth teaspoon of the powder to each cup of sirup, or if using the acid in tablet form, use 125 milli-grams to each pint package of fruit.

Young Hawaiian Woman Is Bride of Hulmeville Man

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Aug. 5.—Miss Edythe Nani Coelho, a resident of Honolulu, T. H., became the bride on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. Elwood Werner, 1401 E. 1st St., Hulmeville, who on August 1st concluded 4½ years service in the U. S. Navy. The nuptial ceremony was solemnized in Our Lady of Grace R. C. Church, with the Rev. Fr. Alfred V. Monaghan, officiating. The groom is the son of Justice of the Peace and Mrs. Elwood W. Buck, Hulmeville.

The former Miss Coelho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel R. Coelho, of Honolulu, was given in marriage by Mr. Patrick J. Nee, Philadelphia, uncle of the groom. As she approached the altar she wore an attractive gown of white tulle and nylon net. The gown, patterned with close-fitting yoke and sleeves which tapered to points over her hands, had a full-cut skirt which swept to a graceful train. A tiara of orange blossoms held a finger-tip veil of net, and the bridal bouquet was of lilies.

Attending the bride were Miss Patricia Nee, Philadelphia, maid of honor; and Miss Marguerite Nee, Philadelphia, bridesmaid. The former was costumed in a floor-length gown of yellow tulle; and the bridesmaid wore a gown of green net. The costumes had cap sleeves. Their headpieces were fashioned of the same material as their respective gowns, intertwined with flowers. The young women carried bouquets of gardenia which blended with the individual costumes. Little Patricia Murphy, Philadelphia, was the flower girl.

Serving Mr. Buck as best man was his uncle, Capt. Allan Barry Buck, of Elkins Park; with Mr. Richard Clark, of Parkland, as usher. The men of the bridal party wore their service uniforms. The groom, who was discharged from the Navy this week, had served as a lieutenant.

Mrs. Buck, mother of the groom, was attired for the ceremony in a black dress with gold nail-head trim, black accessories, and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Covers were arranged for 25 at the reception at Green Light Restaurant, Lincoln Highway. The bride and groom then left for a honeymoon journey. The travelling costume of the bride consisted of a blue gabardine suit with blending accessories. The couple will reside in an apartment at the Buck residence.

You can help to make Pennsylvania Week a BIG event—

September 17-22 will be "Pennsylvania Week." For six days the people of Pennsylvania will celebrate this event.

Will this be a BIG time in your community?

It should be. Because the more you do to boost Pennsylvania and your community, the more people you invite to come here and live, the more industries you encourage to locate here... the greater your personal prosperity will be. And Pennsylvania Week is a time for all of us to do this.

You can help to make Pennsylvania Week a BIG event. Here's how:

Do everything you can to stir up the enthusiasm of business men, women's clubs, school board members, heads of churches and the many others who have a vital interest in Pennsylvania Week. Write to the Department of Commerce, Harrisburg, for your copy of the "Pennsylvania Week Manual"... which tells all of the things your community should do during the period of September 17 to 22.

Here are some suggestions for Pennsylvania Week:

CHURCHES—Sunday, September 22, is Church Recognition Day. Mark it with special services, Sunday School programs, flag displays, etc. Write to the Department of Commerce for a copy of "Pennsylvania's Religious Tradition."

SCHOOLS—Hold essay and poster contests on "What Does Our Town Need," with prizes dedicated by local stores or others and awarded at these meetings. Have students write and give plays on Pennsylvania history. These and other special Pennsylvania observances could run throughout September.

SERVICE CLUBS—Schedule speakers on Pennsylvania, its industries, its future and what can be done to make it grow. Feature Pennsylvania foods on the menus.

STORES, BANKS—Display products made in your community. Arrange Pennsylvania Week windows and interior displays.

WOMEN'S CLUBS—Have speakers and programs on the Pennsylvania theme.

GRANGES, 4H CLUBS—Arrange exhibits of local products. Put food processing, deep freezing and other displays in store windows, lobbies of public buildings, etc.

BUSINESS, INDUSTRY—Advertise your products during Pennsylvania Week as "Made in Pennsylvania." Have open house, visitors' days and inspection trips through your plants.

EVERYONE—If everyone—including you—does a little, Pennsylvania Week will be a success.

COTTON'S HOMER DEFEATS CROYDON 'VETS' BY ONE RUN

Central All-Stars Take The Game by Score of 9 to 8

WAGNER ON MOUND

"Vets" Had A Lead of 6 to 0 During Early Stages of Game

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Aug. 5.—A home run drive to right field by "Ed" Cotton with one on base in the ninth inning gave the Central All-Stars, of Philadelphia, a 9-8 win over the Croydon Veterans of Foreign Wars, yesterday afternoon on the Bensalem field.

The winning base hit was made off the hurling of Earl Wagner who had relieved "Jimmy" Cooper in the eighth inning. Wagner was charged with the defeat.

In the early stages of the game, the "Vets" had a 6-0 lead, thanks to a home run with the bases loaded in the first inning by Fred Barberta. But the Central Stars fought up-hill and scored 7 runs in the last four innings to cop the decision.

Slocum, of the visitors, also had a home run with one on, while Arthur had four out of five. Palumbo and Mari had three out of four for the Croydon team.

VOLTZ-TEXACO WINS; DEFEATS PRISON GUARDS

Although held to four hits, the Voltz-Texaco team scored twice in the fifth inning to win out over the Prison Guards, 4-2, yesterday afternoon, on Leedom's field.

Again it was the fancy hooks of Gene Parker, lanky hurler from Raleigh, N. C., that did the trick for the gas-men. Parker held the Guards to seven hits and fanned 10 batters. He gave up but one pass.

RUSCH WILL DRIVE IN SPEED GRIND AT SOUTH LANGHORNE

Speed Demon Was Prisoner of War for More Than 40 Months

RED BYRON ENTERS

Program To Be a Series of Sprints and Will Provide Plenty of Thrills

Buddie Rusch, of Tampa, Fla., a prisoner of war for more than 40 months, will drive in the next program of AAA-sanctioned big car auto races at Langhorne Speedway on Sunday, August 11. He is among eight new entries announced by Jimmy Frattone, director of the one mile dirt oval.

Rusch and the others join George Robson, winner of the 500-mile Memorial Day classic at Indianapolis and winner, as well as a record-breaker, at the last Langhorne speed show.

Rusch, who purchased his Army Recruiting Special with funds that accrued while he was a prisoner, qualified at Indianapolis at 116.509 miles an hour, but was prevented from starting in the grind when other cars qualified at a greater rate of speed.

He competed in the 100-mile national championship on June 30, which brought racing back to Langhorne after four years of wartime enforced idleness, and finished sixth.

Besides Robson and Rusch, other entries for the August 11 races include Red Byron, Lucky Lux and Mark Light, all of Lebanon, Pa., who will drive Dreyers; Hank Rogers, Trenton, N. J., in a D. O. Hal; Eddie Zulucki, Detroit, driving a Miller; Clay Corbett, a Vance Special; and Johnny Shackelford, an Offenhausner. The latter two are from Dayton, O.

The next Langhorne show will be a series of sprints, again providing more than 100 miles of racing. After qualifying trials starting at 12 noon, the first event will get under way at 2:45. The main race is another 20-miler.

In addition Robson will drive a rocket-propelled car in an attempt to attain a speed of 120 miles an hour or better. He will discharge a 2-second rocket charge on the front stretch and a 4-second charge on the longer back-stretch. The rest of the time he will run under conventional power.

Robson will compete both in the special event and the regular races. In all, he will drive "Poison Lil," the car in which he set a new track record for 8 miles and won the 20-mile feature on the last program.

BOXING FANS ARE ANXIOUS TO SEE NAMEE VS. GIBSON

These Two Boys Are Action From Sound of The First Bell

HAGAN TO BOX GANIE.

Lowery, Phila., Will Meet "Jimmy" Nelson, Also of Philadelphia

With Pancho Namee and Larry Gibson in an encore, the fourth professional boxing show will be presented to the fans of this vicinity tonight in the St. Ann's outdoor arena, Wood street. First preliminary bout will get under way at 8:45 o'clock.

The fight fans who saw Namee and Gibson in action last week know that this pair alone will give them their money's worth. These two boys are action from the opening bell on and are not the type of fighters who stall and wait for openings.

When the bell rings they swing into action and never let up, although their style of fighting differs. Gibson depends on a short sharp punch, while Namee keeps jabbing until he swings that murderous right-hand roundup punch.

It was that short right hook that packs dynamite in it that sent Pancho Namee to the canvas. The Panamanian took the count of nine and the fight devotees thought he was through for the evening. But he made an amazing comeback and tore Gibson to pieces in the last two rounds to earn a draw.

"Gibson won't last the eight rounds," said Namee yesterday as he finished his training chores in Philadelphia. "In the last bout, I had him out on his feet in the sixth and only the bell came to his rescue. I am determined that I will kyo him before the eight sessions are up. And don't forget, the slippery condition of the ring hindered my style in the last bout."

But the Jersey fighter has ideas of his own about who will end up on the floor. He knows that his right can drop Namee and is out to do it again, only this time it will be for the full count. Gibson failed to follow up last week and this probably cost him the knockout which was in his grasp.

Satisfied with his showing of last week, Promoter Moffo has again signed Billy Hagan, of Mayfair, to fight in the semi-windup. In the last show, Hagan beat Melvin Williams, of Trenton, in a six-round bout. This week's foe is also from Trenton, he being Nate Ganie, a stable-mate of Williams, and a protégé of Jess Goss.

Ganie punches harder than Williams and will most likely cause Hagan plenty of trouble. Williams was a southpaw but did not use his hook enough, but Ganie saw Hagan in action against Williams and feels that the Mayfair youth is open to many blows.

Frankie Lowery, Philadelphia, who as an amateur champion saw plenty of action in this section, is booked for the second six-rounder. His opponent will be "Jimmy" Nelson, also of Philadelphia.

"Hokey" Leighton will represent the Bristol talent on the card. Hokey will meet Ralph Lake, of Philadelphia. The latter has not had many fights as a pro and this should be an interesting affair as Leighton claims he is in excellent condition and is anxious to show the local fans that he is a boxer.

The show opens with a four-round bout between Joe DeSantor and Leo Jefferson, both of Philadelphia. General admission tickets will go on sale at the arena at seven o'clock but any time before that reserve seat may be purchased at Moffo's Gas Station, Pond street and Jefferson avenue; Diamond Sporting Goods Store, Mill street, or St. Ann's Club-House, Wood street.
